

Job Responsibilities

- The Cost Accountant is a key member of the Finance Operations team and is the owner of continuous plant financial analysis using facts, data and financial analysis tools to ensure plant profitability is constantly being maximized. This includes reducing manufacturing costs and maximizing product financial returns. This position is the “financial eyes and ears” of the factory working closely with the Operations Management team to understand, analyze and challenge the operations from a financial perspective.
- Set up and maintain integrity of cost accounting models.
- Valuation of inventory.
- Monitoring of cycle count activities to ensure compliance with Corporate Inventory policies and procedures.
- Assistance with the preparation of plant financial statements, variance accurately reported and understood weekly/monthly. Complete financial analysis using plant data and have strong understanding how data translates to overall plant performance.
- Reporting of capital spending/capital project reporting.
- Assistance in the annual budget process and year end audit, as required.
- Prepare product costing, monthly profitability and waste reports and ad hoc cost analysis, as required.
- Assumes additional related responsibilities, as required.

Essential Skills and Requirements

- Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree in Accounting or Finance
- CMA preferred, or desire to obtain certification.
- Experience in Cost Analysis and Inventory financial controls.

Technical Competencies

- Experience in Microsoft Excel at an advanced level.
- Experience in Shop Floor and Management Execution Systems (MES)

Personal Competencies

- Exceptional interpersonal skills and ability to interact with all levels of the organization in a professional manner.
- Ability to adapt to changing needs and prioritize to meet deadlines.
- Work independently and in a team environment.

Cost Accountant - Hybrid

- Strong problem-solving skills and the ability to handle multi-tasking and manage priorities on a daily basis.
- Strong interpersonal communication skills.
- Ability to problem solve and think “big picture.”

IPG has a competitive compensation and benefits package and is committed to providing a safe work environment.

Intertape Polymer Group is an Equal Opportunity Employer and welcomes and encourages applications from people with disabilities. Accommodations are available on request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process.

We thank all candidates for applying but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Learn more about our company, locations, product offerings and apply today through our IPG Career site at www.itape.com. For questions, email SarasotaHR@itape.com