

Glengarry Nurse Practitioner-Led Clinic

Cliniques dirigées par du personnel infirmier praticien de Glengarry

The Glengarry Nurse Practitioner-Led Clinic (GNPLC) located in Lancaster is one of 25 progressive primary care medical clinics in Ontario delivering comprehensive health and preventive care services that are both client-centered and outcome oriented. Our innovative model of care enables Nurse Practitioners to lead clinical care in collaboration with a vibrant team of dedicated health professionals. We are currently recruiting a

Community Mental Health Worker (CMHW)

up to 28 hours per week

Salary range is ($30.12- $40.24/ hour) plus HOOPP pension and other benefits.

Key Areas of Responsibility and Duties include:

- Performing individualized biopsychosocial assessments to determine a clients psycho-social needs, risks, urgency and acuity across the lifespan;
- Devising personalized plans of action in collaboration with the client, caregiver and primary care team based on best practices;
- Delivering time-limited brief therapy, mental wellness and life skill supports including psycho-education, coaching, and follow up;
- Fostering client skill development in areas such as mental well-being, problem solving, communication and positive coping strategies (1:1 or group format);
- Facilitating system navigation and care coordination with community resources and supportive services;
- Diligently monitoring, recording and reporting changes in clinical presentation;

Qualifications:

- College, Undergraduate or Masters degree of Social Work, Social Services Worker, Psychology or other Behavioral Science;
- A member of the Ontario College of Social Workers & Social Service Workers or other regulatory college;
- Recent mental health sector experience preferably within a community based sector or out-patient setting;
- Excellent short term counselling, crisis intervention and group facilitation skills with competency in the areas of depression, trauma and substance abuse;
- Excellent knowledge of community resources to foster referrals and service linkage;
- Demonstrated knowledge of the principals of health equity, the social determinants of health and client advocacy;
- English proficiency is required and a proficiency in French is an asset.

Submit resume via e-mail to Penelope Smith, Exec. Director at alead@glengarryclinic.ca
ASAP.

The GNPLC is an equal opportunity employer and operates in compliance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). Applicants must make their needs known in advance.

We thank all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.