

Personal Support Worker (PSW) – Casual Position

Location: Cornwall, Ontario

Hours: Casual evenings and weekends (approximately 12–20 hours per week)

Compensation: averaging from $26.00 per hour (tax exempt)

We are seeking a compassionate, dependable, and energetic Personal Support Worker (PSW) or caregiver to provide home care and companionship for two youth with complex developmental disabilities.

This is a rewarding position for someone excels in working with individuals who require patient, child-centred care while promoting dignity, comfort, and quality of life.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist with meal preparation and feeding.
- Assist with bathing, dressing, and personal hygiene.
- Prepare snacks throughout the day.
- Change bed linens as required.
- Maintain bedrooms and living areas.
- Perform light housekeeping, including:
 - Laundry
 - Cleaning bathrooms
 - Keeping the eating area clean and organized
 - Ensuring floors are clean and free of obstacles and other related duties.
- Engage in activities such as listening to music, watching television, reading stories, or singing.
- Support daily living activities while maintaining a calm, caring, and respectful environment.

Qualifications

- PSW certificate is an asset but not required. Relevant caregiving experience will also be considered.
- Calm, patient, and compassionate personality.
- Comfortable working with individuals with developmental disabilities.
- Able to remain composed during behavioural challenges or emotional meltdowns.
- Physically capable of performing an active caregiving role.
- Ability to work independently and use sound judgment.
- English required; bilingual (English/French) is an asset.
- Must have a reliable means of transportation; drivers license and automobile required.

Please Call

Andre Lacasse
a.lacasse@live.ca
613-870-0002

A Vulnerable Sector Check (VSC) is preferable or at the very least a Police Criminal Record Check (CRC)