Personal Support Worker

Casual caregiver position

Location: Cornwall, Ontario

Hours: Evenings and weekends, approximately 12–20 hours per week

Compensation: Average of $26.00 per hour (tax exempt)

We are seeking a compassionate, dependable and energetic Personal Support Worker (PSW) or caregiver to provide care and companionship for two individuals with complex developmental disabilities in a private home.

This role is suited to someone who provides patient, person-centred care and helps maintain a calm, respectful environment that supports dignity, comfort and quality of life.

Duties and responsibilities

- Prepare meals and snacks, including Canadian meals, according to household preferences and dietary needs; assist with feeding.
- Assist with bathing, dressing and personal hygiene.
- Change bed linens and keep bedrooms and living areas clean and comfortable.
- Perform light housekeeping, including laundry, cleaning bathrooms and eating areas, and keeping floors clear of obstacles.
- Provide companionship through activities such as listening to music, watching television and singing.
- Support daily living activities and carry out related caregiving duties.
- Accompany and support the client at medical appointments, including car trips to Ottawa.

Qualifications

- A PSW certificate is an asset but is not required. Relevant caregiving experience will also be considered.
- Must be able to prepare Canadian meals and follow the household's food preferences and dietary needs.
- A calm, patient and compassionate approach, with comfort supporting people with developmental disabilities.
- Ability to remain composed during behavioural challenges or emotional distress.
- Physical ability to carry out the duties of an active caregiving role.
- Ability to work independently and use sound judgment.
- Ability to speak French is an asset.
- A valid driver's licence, access to a vehicle and reliable transportation are required.
- A Vulnerable Sector Check is preferred; at minimum, a Police Criminal Record Check is required.
